Costly, subjective and incomplete evaluations increase compliance risk and yield an incomplete view of agent performance

SUBJECTIVE QA EVALUATIONS

Spending time hunting for coachable moments takes away from time spent coaching

TOO MUCH TIME SPENT HUNTING

Manual and or sampled evaluations make it impossible to see full trends; immature analytics handicaps insights

NO VISIBILITY INTO TRENDS

QA behaviors or criteria based on anecdotes or assumptions may drive undesired business outcomes

MISALIGNMENT TO BIZ OUTCOMES

Opaque QA criteria and or no access to past performance limits agents ability to proactively improve
